FLIGHTS FROM REGIONAL AIRPORTS

Whether it is scheduled, no frills or chartered airlines that you wish to travel on, Cyplon Holidays can meet your requirements as we offer every Regional Airport flying to Morocco. Pre-booked upgrade services are also available and we can even arrange an airport lounge-pass for you if you wish to avoid the commotion and start your relaxation straight away. Speedy/Priority boarding and even in-flight meals (on no frills airlines) can also be arranged with our Reservations Staff.

CYPLON REPRESENTATIVES

The Cyplon Family does not just reside in the UK, it extends abroad – Our Cyplon Representatives will always be on hand to meet you & make certain that all is to your satisfaction. Generally we will aim to contact you at the beginning of your stay & if you would like to arrange a further meeting this is also possible. Here, we can provide you with advice & tips on your Resort & its surroundings. You will also be provided with an around-the-clock point of call - in case you need any additional assistance whilst on your vacation.

PRIVATE TRANSFERS

Do not fear- we won't put you on a bus full of 30-40 people! When you arrive in resort, travel in luxury in one of our private transfer cars or for larger groups a private minibus. N.B. Child and Baby Seats For Transfers- if required are at an extra cost and must be booked in advance.

SENSIBLE PRICE MATCHING POLICY

In the unlikely event that you find a like-for-like holiday package cheaper than what we have quoted, we promise to do our utmost to match the price for you. However, please note, it is within our right to deem a price of our competitor "not sensible", i.e. a price where we feel that our competitor either may have made a mistake in calculating their prices or indeed where we feel the competitor is pricing the holiday at lower than its costs.

FLUID PRICING AND USING THIS BROCHURE

Cyplon Holidays adopts a completely fluid method of pricing for its holidays. In simple terms this means we don't fix the prices of our holidays from the outset and if any of the prices of our holiday elements, such as air fares or hotel rates, are reduced [as they do second by second] then you can expect to see a lower cost for your holiday. In this way our prices will always be more accurate and therefore more competitive. Please note that whilst the prices we display in our brochure are prepared with the utmost care and attention, they are to be used for guideline purposes only. To obtain a detailed quotation of your holiday cost, kindly contact your local travel agent or call our reservations team on 020 8340 7612, or visit our website www.cyplon.co.uk.

Agadir, an ancient city was completely destroyed in an earthquake in 1960 and rebuilt 2km further south. It is located at the shores of the Atlantic Ocean, close to the Anti Atlas Mountains, and is the largest coastal resort in Morocco.

WELCOME TO MOROCCO

Forming the north-west shoulder of the African continent, Morocco is a melting pot of Berber, Arabian and European cultures and influences. This exotic blend gives Morocco a truly unique identity with nowhere in the world quite like it. The diversity found within Morocco is astonishing, with the ever bustling city of Marrakech, beach side towns of Agadir and Essaouira, the expansive Sahara desert and the indomitable and breathtakingly beautiful Atlas Mountains, not to mention other historical and cultural highlights including Fès, Casablanca and Rabat.

AT A GLANCE:

HISTORY AND CULTURE

Moroccan culture is grounded with ancient Berber influence that spans at least 5000 years. As with many countries in the Mediterranean, Morocco experienced Phoenician, Carthaginian and Roman invaders throughout its early history prior to Muslim conquest in the late 7th century. Though intricate Arabic decorative features and architecture dominate the country, each of the countries and empires from Morocco's interwoven history exert palpable influence on Moroccan music, cuisine and culture. For example, French has remained Morocco's unofficial third language following its period as a French protectorate in the early 20th century.

MOROCCAN CUISINE

Moroccan food is lightly exotic and often hearty. The cuisine takes full advantage of fresh African and Mediterranean produce as well as its Berber, Moorish and Arab influences. Local produce is combined elegantly with saffron-tinged couscous in tagines studded with cubes of braised lamb and flavoured with ras el hanout, a blend of the spice souk's best offerings. If you can get your hands on it while on one of our Morocco holidays, be sure to try pastille, a delicious and elaborate meat pie that piquantly combines sweet and salty flavours in crepe-like dough. While exploring the Medina, you will want to stop for a refreshing, sweet glass of mint tea. Be sure to pour the teapot as high as you dare for the ultimate bubbly brew.

THINGS TO DO

At the top of the list on one of our holidays in Morocco are the souks of Marrakech and Rabat. Browse and haggle for masterful handiwork including leather items and colourful kilims, the popular geometric Berber rugs. If you'd rather people-watch and window shop, enjoy a fresh orange juice or a sweet glass of mint tea in one of the local cafes and watch the world go by. Adventurous types can get the grime of the day scrubbed vigorously away in a traditional hammam, and those looking for a little more pampering can indulge in a relaxing aromatic rub down from the spa in their charming riad tucked away from the hustle and bustle. Sports enthusiasts will want to try kite-boarding or windsurfing in beautiful Essaouira or fishing off the coast of Agadir.

THINGS TO SEE

The famed medinas of Morocco are bustling hives of activity and aromas that must be experienced at least once. If you tire of haggling in Marrakech, visit the tranquil Majorelle Garden designed by Jacques Majorelle and Yves Saint Laurent. This exquisite subtropical garden punctuated by deep cobalt blue buildings and accents has been meticulously laid out and is the perfect place to spend a relaxed afternoon. Rabat's kasbah, though largely residential, is a lovely place to wander with whitewashed houses lining the narrow streets. The crescent-shaped Oualidia Lagoon is a serene paradise protected by a naturally formed breakwater and is perfect for relaxing and unwinding.

INTRODUCING MARRAKECH

One of the most captivating cities not only in North Africa, but throughout the world, Marrakech lies close to the foot of the Majestic Atlas Mountains and just a few hours away from the Sahara desert. There are 2 contrasting parts of the city, the Medina, which is the historical centre of Marrakech where you will find the famous souks, narrow streets and endless charm, and the modern district called Ville Nouvelle or Gueliz, which boasts modern restaurants and shops. Marrakech makes for the ideal cultural city break, where you can relax in ultimate luxury or experience staying in an old Arabic mansion (Riad).

THE REST OF MOROCCO

Overleaf you will find a brief description of other cities and resorts that are featured within this brochure. Whilst being less well known as tourist destinations than the cities and regions featured so far in this brochure, these places have so much to offer in their own right. Morocco's capital city of Rabat, the Imperial city of Fès, cosmopolitan Casablanca and the eclectic city of Tangier are all diverse and fascinating cities with plenty of hidden gems to discover. Oualidia and Tamouda Bay are quiet unspoilt coastal destinations boasting real natural beauty. Add culture, history and natural beauty into your Morocco journey by incorporating any of these destinations into your plans. We can guarantee that you will not regret it.

RABAT

Rabat is Morocco's capital city and political centre. Rabat occupies a position on the Atlantic coastline in the north of Morocco and is less busy than Morocco's other main cities, enjoying plenty of green spaces and a more laid-back vibe than nearby Casablanca. Rabat is also far less visited by tourists than Casablanca but this is in no way a reflection of the city and what it has to offer. Rabat is a culturally and historically rich city with modern flair and impressive infrastructure. There is a well-developed ocean-front with some fantastic beaches and the city plays host to a number of Jazz and music festivals throughout the year.

FÈS

Once Morocco's capital city, Fès is an imperial city with a rich tradition of producing and inspiring artists, culinary masters and scholars. It is no wonder that Fès is the home of the oldest, continually running university in the world, the University of Al-Karaouine. These influences of old can still be felt today with stunning architecture found throughout the city and arguably some of the best cuisine in the world. Fès also plays host to the largest car-free urban area in the world, the charming Medina of Fès el-Bali. Whilst still relatively undiscovered by tourists, with its bustling Medina, new luxury hotels and restored riads, Fès is becoming a Moroccan destination set to rival Marrakech.

CASABLANCA

Casablanca is the largest city in Morocco and is one of Africa's leading cities, both economically and demographically with one of the leading financial centres on the continent. There is so much more to Casablanca than a classic eponymous film starring Humphrey Bogart. This former French colonial post is the most cosmopolitan and Westernised city in Morocco. 'Casa' as the locals refer to is located on the country's north-west coastline, just 86km south from Rabat. Stopping off in Casablanca is a must for tourists travelling around Morocco to experience a more modern side to this country with a Parisian twist.

TANGIER

Located on Morocco's most northern tip and guarding the Strait of Gibraltar, Tangier is a port city that has been an important gateway between Africa and Europe for thousands of years. Once a revered international city, Tangier has gone through a renaissance as of late and through much investment is on its way to being restored to its former glory.

OUALIDIA

A tranquil coastal village in the west of Morocco, Oualidia sits behind a beautiful natural lagoon giving rise to a stunning landscape. The geography of Oualidia makes it a breeding ground for oysters hence making this village Morocco's 'oyster capital'. Oualidia is a peaceful retreat for visitors to enjoy natural beauty and nature-based activities.

TAMOUDA BAY

Tamouda Bay is an untouched, unspoilt coastal area in the north-east of Morocco. This beautiful coastal location is around 80km from Tangier and plays host to the 5-star luxury hotel 'Banyan Tree Tamouda Bay' which features a world-renowned spa.

LA SULTANA OUALIDIA

OUALIDIA

An enchanting haven of tranquillity and relaxation, La Sultana Oualidia offers guests an unforgettable romantic retreat on the east-coast of Morocco. This charming hotel of just 11 rooms, each with its own private terrace and sea-water Jacuzzi, is a member of the Small Luxury Hotels of the World and will exceed all your expectations.
